

Privacy policy for parents and children

Every day, we organize loving and inspiring childcare for your child(ren). We do this at the childcare location itself but also behind the scenes. Our staff coordinate vacation programs, while our Location Manager, Daycare Manager and the Management team to ensure the pedagogical quality. Also, our planners will gladly help you change your childcare days and our colleagues at the communication department make sure you receive all news about your childcare location. In order to organize all this to the best of our abilities, we need your information. In this privacy policy, we would like to inform you about what exactly happens with this information. Do you use our services? Then we assume you have taken note of and agreed with this privacy policy.

Here's what you need to know

- We collect information in order to provide the best possible care for your child and to accommodate the childcare you desire.
- We are always clear and transparent about what information we collect from you and why we need this information.
- We handle your information carefully and with confidentiality and we will do everything possible to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized access and unwanted disclosure.
- We only exchange your information with a third party if this is necessary. For our planning services and sending out our newsletters, for example.
- We do not sell your information to third parties.
- We respect that your information is private. Therefore, you can contact us at communicatie@opstoom.nl, if you no longer wish to give your permission for us to see your information, if you want to rectify your information, transfer your information to either you or another party or if you no longer wish to have us process your information. We will respond to your request within the legal term of 4 weeks and will ask you to identify yourself.
- We handle and store your information according to the European law, including the General Data Protection Regulation.

What information do we collect and where do we store it?

When you visit (one of) our websites, we collect certain information through Google Analytics, which help us improve the website. We don't collect any personal information, but anonymized information about your activities on the website as well as which internet browser and type of device you use. On our website, there is no intention to gather information regarding visitors under the age of 16 years old.

Once you register your child for childcare by Op Stoom, we collect certain information that allow us to enter into a childcare contract with you, offer good childcare, track the development and wellbeing of your child, communicate with you and contact you regarding invoices and billing.
